Madonna unveils a greatest hits tour

After much speculation and teasing on social media, Madonna announced Tuesday morning that she's going on a world tour to celebrate her 40-year career.

The announcement came in a video posted on her YouTube page that recreated a scene from her 1991 documentary "Truth or Dare." In the clip, Amy Schumer dares Madonna to do "a world tour and play your greatest motherf---ing hits."

In a statement, the pop star said she's " excited to explore as many songs as possible in hopes to give my fans the show they have been waiting for."

The 35-city Celebration Tour will kick off in Vancouver on July 15 before visiting multiple cities in North America, and Europe, wrapping Dec. 1 in Amsterdam. She will play Toronto's Scotiabank Arena Aug. 13.

Tickets go on sale at 10 a.m. Friday at livenation.com, with a presale for members of Madonna's Official Fan Club Tuesday at noon.

Early last year, the 64-year-old artist became the first woman to have a top 10 album in each decade since the 1980s, after her remix compilation "Finally Enough Love" debuted at No. 8 on Billboard's Sept. 3 chart. She is also the bestselling female solo touring artist of all time.

In December, she digitally released "Gambler," a dance tune that appeared on the soundtrack of the 1985 movie "Vision Quest." It topped the iTunes chart in Israel within a few hours and was among the top 10 songs purchased in the U.K., France, Spain, Brazil and Portugal.

'Magnificent' books adapted for TV show

An eight-year-old inventor is the hero of "Millie Magnificent," a new preschool TV series announced by Nelvana, based on the "Most Magnificent" book series by Canadian author and illustrator Ashley Spires.

Millie, to be played by Kaia Oz, is described as "an avid inventor, creator and problem-solver" who, with her friends Maya, Ben and canine assistant Wallace, strives "to find the most magnificent solutions to their neighbourhood's challenges."

Ian Ho plays Ben and Tianna SwamiNathan is Maya.

The TV announcement kicks off 50th anniversary celebrations for Kids Can Press, publisher of the "Magnificent" books.

The third book, "The Most Magnificent Maker's A to Z," will be released in the fall.

'Shoresy' gets second season

More "Shoresy" is coming to screens in Canada and the U.S.

Crave announced Tuesday that it has ordered a second season of the TV comedy, a "Letterkenny" spinoff created by and starring Jared Keeso.

The show follows potty-mouthed fan favourite character Shoresy (Keeso) and the Sudbury Blueberry Bulldogs hockey team as they vie to never lose another game. Crave says its debut last May was the most watched for a Canadian series in the streaming service's history.

"Shoresy" streams on Hulu in the U.S. Returning for Season 2 alongside Keeso are actors Tasya Teles, Harlan Blayne Kytwayhat, Jonathan-Ismael Diaby, Terry Ryan, Ryan McDonell, Max Bouffard, Andrew Antsanen, Jon Mirasty, Brandon Nolan, Jordan Nolan, Blair Lamora and Keilani Rose.

Opening Lead: ♣A

West continued with a club for the king. An advance of the ten of spades was ducked but South abandoned trump to follow with a heart to the ace and a heart ruff. The continuation of the jack of spades saw East take the ace and switch to a diamond for declarer's ace. A spade to the queen extracted the last one and a heart ruff resulted in an overtrick, N-S +450.

Eleven tricks would also roll home if East had been able to play a third club tapping dummy. Declarer cashes the king of hearts discarding a diamond, ruffs a heart and extracts the last trump with dummy's spade queen to enjoy the heart winners.

West's opening lead had been an abject failure by presenting declarer with a gift. An opening lead from this combination is rarely an effective selection but, in my view, the blame for this debacle falls on East's shoulders.

He should have doubled four diamonds as a lead-directing stratagem. West will begin with a diamond where East will switch to the jack of clubs after winning the spade ace.

In this scenario, South must ruff the third club with the spade queen to be successful.
